Wreck of a Norwegian Bark, MONTREAL, June 11.—News arrived here yesterday morning of a terrible wreck on St. Paul Island, in the Gulf of the Norwegian bark Nottle Margrethe, with the exception of five seamen, were swept from their vessel and drowned. The bark was commanded by Captain Frederick Christophersen, of Lorwig, Norway, and was bound from London to Miramichi, New Brunswick.

She had had a moderately fair passage could not well be ascertained, owing to the dense fog that prevailed. On the morning of the 3d inst. land was sighted and breakers almost at the same moment. when, with hardly a moment's warning, the ship went crashing against the rocks at some distance from the light-ship. She hung there but a short time, during which the second mate and four of the crew who were upon the forecastle at the time escaped by jumping upon the rocks. Before the remainder of the crew could escape the bark slid into deeper water and went to pleces in a very few minutes. Those who had escaped did what they could to secure their mates, but so furious was the surf and so dense the fog that they were pow-erless to do anything. Capt. F. Christo-phersen, Cal Some, first officer; P. Mathesean, ship's carpenter; seamen Carl and Reisen, and Edwards, the cabin boy, were drowned. The survivors, after some dif-ficulty, made their way to Superintendent Campbell, of the light house, who treated them kindly and sent them to Sydney, Cape Breton, where they arrived yester-day. The names of the survivors are not yet given.

The Color Line in the Schools, PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—In view of the recent decision of the Hon. Pearson Church, in the case of the Commonwealth against the board of control of the schools of Meadville, in which he decided that the constitution must govern school directors as well as other people, and the fact that the State Legislature has repealed the act of 1851, the subject of equality of the races in the public schools assumes an interesting phase.

As a new law relating to this subject has also recently been passed, it is 'proba-ble that vigorous efforts will soon be made to abolish the color line in all schools of this city, and thus to break up to a great extent the present system of sending col-ored children to schools exclusively devoted to their instruction.

The "Victoria" Investigation.

LONDON, ONT., June 11.—The jury in the Victoria case yesterday afternoon vistied the wreek, and in the presence of the coroner, the crown attorney and the engineer in charge, examined the hull. The leakage was discovered to be situated about eighteen feet from the stern of the hull proper and nearly half way across the width of the boat. Several of the jurymen entertained grave doubts as to the precise manner in which the leakage was occasioned. They insist that the boat shall be raised upon that the boat shall be raised upon screws, in order that the bottom may Peters, the be fairly exposed. ALBANY, June 11.—The bribery investihe was dead. Johnson's flight and capture late in the evening by the police, as well as the enraged crowds of people who gathered in the vicinity, are things to be remembered. To-day, after hearing all the testimony, Judge Snell sentenced him to imprisonment for 11 months and 29 days, as the law did not permit of an imprisonment of a year under the circumstances.

ALBANY, June 11.—The bribery investigation of New York, appears as counsel for the committee. He said he had no opportunity to consult with the witnesses, and felt himself unfit to enter upon this investigation at this time. He thought the counsel on the other side would agree with him that it would expedite matters if there was a recess taken till this afternoon, so that he could be lowed to prepare himself for the case.

The French Elections.

LONDON, June 11.—A dispatch from Paris to Reuter's Telegram Company says: "At a Cabinet council yesterday, a pro-posal to hasten the date of the elections was not opposed. They will probably be held at the commencement of the second fortnight in July if the bureaux of the left in the Chamber of Deputies, who will be invited to discuss the proposal to-day, consent to it."

The Rioting at Cork. CORK, June 11.—The rioting here Tues day night originated in the police arrest ing eight persons, who were concerned in a drupken disturbance at the races. What followed was the result of an attempt to rescue the prisoners, which gave the mob a favorable opportunity for attacking the police. The feeling of the roughs against the police and soldiers was shown by the frequent brutal assault upon individuals

The Return of the "Little Western." LONDON, June 11.—The American dory Little Western, which crossed the Atlantic from Gloucester, Mass., to Loudon last summer with a crew consisting of Capt. Geo. P. Thomas and Frederick Norman, will start on the return journey Westminster Bridge on Tuesday next, the 14th instant.

The Needed Experiment, London, June 11.—The Times of to-day remarking on the growth of lawless ness in Ireland says: One experiment which is most obvious and most certain to succeed remains untried. If one mob of Fenlans or Land Leaguers, or whatever title were just for once not suffered to have its own way; if its appeal to force were met and overcome and if the mob were dispersed and forbid den to reassemble, the consequence might be happy in the extreme. One victory of the law would be the signal for others. The objections to such an experiment are obvious, but not conclusive. The forcible dispersion of a mob in Ire-land would certainly be followed by a howl of execration from their parliamen-tary friends and champions. The Irish press, which is silent over injuries to the police, would be eloquent in the case we are now aupposing; but the land league are now supposing; but the land league would receive something very like its death blow, and might itself fall into the contempt with which the law is treated in Ireland.

The man was an old soldier, and living alone, he was supposed to have become very lonesome and disconsolate. Becoming tired of life, he had written numerous letters to his friends telling them of his intended suicide, which were lying in the room at the time he was discovered. The case attracts a great deal of sympathy and interest, but the particular or immediate cause of his death will not be revealed, unless the Coroner disperses many clouds of doubt that hang around the latter part and sad termination of his lonely life

Blackmailing in Jersey City.
Paul Philloche, Ocenti Pattan and Alexander Stubenski complained before Judge Davis, in Jersey City, yesterday, that Chas. L. Washburne, a young lawyer, Robert S. Jarnowski and one Zeramba had conspired to defraud them and had got over $40 from them by false pretenses. All the men except Washburne are Swedes. The complainants allege that they were taken by a man who represented himself to be an officer before Justice Robert Duffy. There they were told that they had threatened the life of one Frank Ocske. Washburne, Jarnowsky and Zeramba in-formed them that if they paid $15 each they would be released. They handed over all the money they had, which amounted to $41.20, and were allowed to go. Justice Davis issued warrants for the arrest of the accused. Justice Duffy, when questioned last evening with regard to the affair, said that he could not find the complaints on which the men were arrested, and that no money had been taken from the men in his presence or hearing.
